Join us for a dynamic two-week musical theatre experience in the pastoral beauty of Washington's Olympic Peninsula.

Each day we'll begin together with yoga, breathing exercises, and vocal warm-up. Then in smaller groups we'll explore:

- » Acting a Song
- » Dance Basics
- » Improvisation
- » Audition Coaching
- » Becoming a Director

We'll integrate singing, acting, and choreography to create original musical numbers. After two weeks of training together as a company, we'll present informal performances to invited audiences.

In addition to group exercises, personalized coaching will be available to help build confidence and to fine-tune individual talents.

"I loved discovering myself through this process and feel so lucky to have had this experience."
